INTRO

If you are already happy and free in your religion do NOT read NO further!

This book is NOT for you!

But if you are tired of being a SLAVE to someone else's ideas and WAY of life, then be brave, be bold and read on!

The worst that can happen is that you will convert back to your old ways!

THE {Devil's} WAY

The {Devil's} Way

They meet and tell stories of fantastic things and people. Their old favorite gods, or people, this was their entertainment, their way to have fun. Trade stories and tall tales about things they have heard from others. They had no other form of real entertainment stories where all they had to tell around the fire, fantastic stories.

And so, one day, a man met an Egyptian and they swapped stories of their great gods. One spoke of the great Greek gods and the power of Zeus and of the titans, the other man, not to be out done, the Egyptian spoke of the story of Osiris and the beginning of the gods. Stories that were written in the Egyptian book of the Dead, thousands of years before. The story of how he was born to a virgin mother on Dec 25th. Had 12 disciples, healed the blind and raised a man from the dead. Was baptized by a man named "Anup" translates to "Lazareth" who later was beheaded and then resurrected by Horus. He was later crucified, and rose from the dead three days later. Sound familiar?

Seriously, this Lutheran Church in Lompoc used to serve a very nice lunch to the homeless, but as usual you could feel the eyes of a lot of the women who saw you as a threat to THEIR WAY OF LIFE when you came in for the lunch. They closed their doors when I showed up too many times. I had no idea what a bad reaction you would get from people for just wearing a star of David.
I can only remember one nice man telling me he liked my star in which I thanked him.

I asked this preacher one time, 'Are there any children in hell?' I really didn't realize how much on the spot I put him. If he said No, then no child is evil? So how is he a sinner? And if he said Yes, then God was the cruelest psychopathic father in the world, for children need room to grow and make mistakes without being judged as a sinner or saint, and NOT be told they are going to hell for disobeying their loving father.

After all, did not god say "if your son or daughter disobeyed you, take them out back, and don't just get a twig off a tree, get a couple of stones and stoned the bastards to death!"

It is not that I hate Christians which I don't, it is really a matter of sanity.

When you read the bible as man's word {and man was quite ignorant of many things and had an imagination the same as you and me had about the unknown universe {god} and the unknown humanoid {man}}, not the word of God to man.

The Word of God To Man is an 'agreement' of metaphors, {which means: interpreted the bible as you please}, and Jewish, Roman and Greek Myths, and Holy stories which become LIES when FORCED to BELIEVE THEM!

The Bible is not FACT.

It is a work of fiction by many, many different writers from many, many different cultures, Africa being one of the main ones.

I was not shocked, I had my own rational mind now, I was Satan. For I was the accuser of God, the Father of Jesus! The Foul Beast of the Old Testament!
Yeah, God would be a freaking monster if he were real. I mean the god of the Old Testament!

You know I use a lot of gay stuff in my posts to be funny. And I am just a crazy str8 guy, but the homophobic atmosphere that is promoted by this accursed book called the Bible is unbelievable! When a person can be murdered just because he has a different sexual preference than most is insane. So I make a lot of gay jokes just to piss off Yahweh! After all I AM His Son and I am as Eternal as He is! And I am real, He is not!

People who BELIEVE in a supernatural god are INSANE! They think BELIEVING in the Supernatural makes the supernatural REAL! To really think a real person can come back from the dead is insane in a physical world. In your head or mind, dead people can walk around all day and not disturb anyone. But when you say my god is some dead Zombie in heaven smiling down on me, I begin to wonder. There is the One Living God and there are man-made God and gods!

Insanity is not knowing right and wrong, which are opinions, but not knowing reality from fantasy or Right FROM Wrong.

Take the Sodom and Gomorrah story. If you read it two men wanted to see two men angels who can't have sex and the father asked that his daughters be raped instead of this vile act done by two men. There was nothing mentioned about what kind of sex act these men were going to do.

Remember in the bible the only acceptable sex is being married and having a baby, the basic sex drive of an animal. Everything else including masturbation, sex outside of marriage and so on is taboo and subject to death! With this kind of bullshit being implanted in children's minds generation after generation it is no wonder we live in a sex-deprived and borderline insane world today. This is just one of the few major problems the Holy Books cause to the rational mind.

Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter; and they called Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we may have relations with them."

If you read the text you find not only men but the women came too and maybe some sheep and goats {all the people from every quarter...} it was going to be one helluva of ORGY!

Not even read right this has been the cause of unnecessary violence and murder all in the name of God and Jesus and even Allah. That is why I hate religion.

The Truth They Do Not Want You To Hear

Many scientists were jailed, discredited and called Satanists and witches. Burned alive, they needed the people to be “god-fearing” . Why should you fear your god? For control, and then you get on your knees like a slave and beg him to love you. Like an abused puppy, you cry out, beg, sing and pray for his forgiveness and his acceptance. You sometimes hit yourselves, go through so much internal pain, emotional damage, wait in lude anticipation for some little sign or signal that never comes, and then the disappointment. And then you do it all over again, it sounds like slavery to me.

This is also amazing to me that the African American part of our society loves this bible and hates slavery, but they are in fact, still slaves to the slavers and middle eastern religion that kept them down.

Forced by slave owners to listen and learn about the god that accepts slavery and tells you to suffer…Why?

Why do you continue to suffer this pain and white god crap? Why don’t you rediscover your ancestral gods who empower you to be the real you that you were meant to be. Not some person, on their knees, begging again!

Stand up! Rise up! Be who you were born to be, leave the Middle Eastern god, and find your roots and your own power just a thought.

In the marketing for this lie, they use so many words out of context and not in their intended meaning. Like “Truth” nothing in this archaic religion is true, none of it! But yet they say the “Truth of god’s word” or “the true meaning of god” or the great one, “The gospel truth” that translates to “The lies lie”. “The word of God” when god never said or wrote any of it, as we have gone over, and over, it was all written from men!

You are not even reading the original bible anymore. Over 30,000 changes have been made to a book that states very plainly, “Do not make additions or subtractions to my word or commandments”.

The 200 revisions to the gay King James Version, it's not god's word, it never was. The oldest version is written on lambskin in the Vatican’s vault written in 1475, not for you to read, denied!

This book has been rewritten by so many, from Thomas Jefferson to Hitler. Thomas Jefferson’s new bible is so different from any other.
His version left out all the miracles by Jesus and the resurrection.
He was trying to make it more believable and failed.

If you look through time, almost, I repeat almost every conflict through time has been religion based.

Every grave with a cross on it, every church with a cross on it is all a LIE, all of it a lie!

This is why I call this, “The Great Con of Man”.

For those of you who read this and say to yourselves, “I knew that” Then you are with us, The Enlightened Ones.

Those born of The ETERNAL LIGHT {Fire}!

We are all part and parcel of ONE ETERNAL ENERGY {SPIRIT}.

We are the Impersonal Universe made personal.

This is the SPIRIT to the soul or the MACRO SELF to the micro self.

Your TRUE SELF or TRUE EGO is CONSCIOUSNESS.
Your false self or FALSE EGO is UNCONSCIOUSNESS.

Your TRUE SELF is KNOWING.
Your false self is UNKNOWINGNESS.

So many lies, so much deception, so harsh and unforgiving is the great con of man. And like sheep they continue believing whatever they tell you with blind faith, your blind all right, to the truth. Fighting wars to the death trying to uphold a religion they inherited, not through choice. They didn't research it, looking around for a religion that stood for what they wanted to say, but one that was thrown in their lap by their parents. No study of other viewpoints, no looking around. Go out and fight and die for our bullshit! Protect me and my whores and my money and you will go to a glorious place when you die for me. That's why they only send the poor, from now on, the rich bastard kids should have to go first, wars would stop immediately! We would never be at war again if all those who started them knew their kids were going to be the first to die in them. Let's try that.

Imagine all the priests, nuns, and artists, giving their lives to nothing. They do great things but in the name of god not in the name of humanity, to a god who's not there and not listening. What a waste of a good life. Now put all that loss of life in perspective. Think about it, knowing the real truth of it all. The pain of that knowledge and watching the blind walk around in the dark not knowing they are blind.

If you ever want to see what I tell you is true, do this experiment: Find a shirt or jacket that states very plainly that you are either a witch or a Satanist. Now understand, you're not doing anything that the Christians don't already do in spades, look around and see how many Christian shirts, bumper stickers, signs, and car decals you are around on a daily basis. Now just do what they do and see the reaction you get. The pompous faces and the conceited smiles and looks you get. The "How could you" and the "You're not really one of those are you?" pompous bull shit you'll get.

And for those of you who won't try this, and you are in fear of pious retribution and isolation for having an opinion different from them, this is how you act. The snide comments and even the outright laughing, as well as the mad and upset ones that you'll get are amazing.

Shaking their heads, "no" as if their holy religion was real. They have no idea that their shit is all made up, they live in ignorant bliss, unaware that it is all just a lie made up to make people fall in place.

Now, as an enlightened person, I know it's impossible for me to change everyone's mind after thousands of years of pounding lies. I get that. But if I can save one, just one, I have done more damage to their bull shit religion then they can handle. For one intelligent person will pass on their knowledge, death will just make martyrs out of them.

I get it, some people need that deity, and some people need someone stronger and in charge to turn to. But my thought is this; keep your religion to yourself, stop recruiting because you're just making it worse. Die in peace and let your archaic religion die with you.

We learn new things as time and research goes on. We know smoking will kill you. We know that drinking can be an addiction, we know so many things that we didn't just one hundred years ago. But people still smoke, and drink, and get drunk and drive, but death will eventually take care of eliminating them.

Don't let believers take you down with them believing you're going to be in some "rapture", you're not, neither are they. If they want to go to their grave thinking that, so be it, it doesn't mean you have to live and suffer for the same lie.

The bible is not god's word about man but man's word about his created and imaginary god!
An Enlightened Being or PSI BEING KNOWS the difference between FORCE and FORM.

MATTER {FORM} from SPIRIT {FORCE}.
LOVE from HATE.
Good from Evil.
Right from Wrong.

Most of these people that we speak of are what is known as a default Christian, they think they know, but they have no idea at all about their religion. They go to church, listen to what a professional deceiver says, the pastor may not even have a clue that they are wrong, that's the problem. This perpetuated lie that has gone on for so long that no one knows any better. They just regurgitate the pastors' words without proof, without study and without the guts to say no. They assume he's right and defend him to the death. These people are gone. Never asking for proof!

The reality that god is not real, Jesus never existed, and they need to snap out of it! If you stop and analyze the ideology of Christianity it rewards for obedience but is only given after death, so no one can see the end results. No one can prove or disprove the rewards of all the sacrifices in this life. Suffering with no immediate reward for it is their true promise. It would be like saying, "Give me all your money and someday, maybe, you might get the rewards. Only a delusional fool would take that offer.

How convenient is it, that not one single piece of "evidence" has been found. Nothing, no god, no jesus, no cross, no commandments, no arc, nothing at all exists to show that this great man was ever here! Truly genius, to have the "greatest story ever told" without one fucking shred of evidence, how convenient. This, in itself, should be enough for any intelligent person to question this. But some still don't see it.

To teach ancient people a story, to convince them to go and fight your enemy to defend your riches and your property, your hookers, and your power. To tell poor people that a world of gold and riches is yours for the taking, just go die for it, is pathetic! The reason they are in the dirt in the first place is because of you. Basic rule, keep them poor and ignorant, lie to them and they will die for you. I told you the truth only hurts at first but makes you better like medicine, take it with a spoon of sugar.

They love to lie about "facts" that disprove god's existence. Things like the complexity of the human eye being the proof of god. Not knowing that the octopus's eye is much better than ours. God loves octopi more than he loves us. The reasoning of god exists because you don't know enough about science doesn't fly. Just because you don't understand something, doesn't mean by any stretch of the imagination that this is proof of any god.

People have been in awe of nature since the beginning of the human race. That's why these religions exist, to give people some kind of answer to questions we have asked ourselves, but don't have the knowledge to answer them. That has all changed now. Not to say we have all the answers, we don't, but we do know the basics which prove there is no creator.
And the creator's book is all wrong about his own creations, so again, proof of the fact that it was written by a primitive uneducated man.

The absolute thing about religion is that there is nothing at all that is true about any of it. There is no truth about any of it, no proof, only stories and speculation. To believe in something that is evidently without evidence of any kind to prove it is real, is in itself a falsehood or lie.

WHY ARE YOU MAKING A BOOK MORE REAL THAN YOU ARE?

"There is a WAY that seemeth right unto man, take it, trust your gut feelings!"

The MIDDLE WAY

The Search for Self-fulfillment

RELIGIONS tell you SPIRIT is EVERYTHING and the MATERIAL WORD IS EVIL or NON-EXISTENCE.

SCIENCE tells you only the MATERIAL WORD exist and therefore SOUL or SPIRITUAL THINGS are useless and are NON-EXISTING.

When religious principles can be understood scientifically we have a SPIRITUAL SCIENCE.

METAPSYCHICS is a SCIENCE as well as a SPIRITUAL SCIENCE.

This ongoing battle between the UNSEEN and SEEN is like the SUN fighting the MOON for DOMINANCE and SUPREMACY when the TWO should be working together in their own FIELDS of EXPERTISE. The day for the SUN and the night for the MOON.
For the plants and animals, fish and birds, consume during the day and rest and grow in the night. Without one, there would be NO OTHER.

And this is the same insane BATTLE in your head.
The ANGEL fighting against the DEMON, or GOD {Moses, Jesus, Allah, Lucifer} fighting against the DEVIL {Satan}.

This is the same as the unbalance between FORCE and FORM when they work together to create you and the universe you live in.

Finally, it is the battle between TRUE EGO and false ego, or 'ego' when it is the TRUE EGO {PSI BEING} who created the 'false ego' {PSYCHIC ENTITY {PE}} in the first place to visit other worlds, planets, moon, and universes beyond 7th and 9th heaven for HEAVEN is ETERNAL, and activate his LIGHT BODY or animate his ELECTROMAGNETIC BODY known as his ASTRAL BODY in the past.
"Man lives in his own imagination or someone else's. He is happiest in his own Universe."

“It is better to do your job imperfectly, than to do someone else’s job perfectly.”

“There is no ‘real’ me—a tiny homunculus hidden beneath layers of frozen feelings. … It is not an isolated ‘object,’ a ghost locked in a machine or a mere consciousness located within the body. Is that not the false ego? Am I not more than that?

“You are inextricably enmeshed in the web of meanings shaped by the psychoculture that you helped to form and that, in turn, helps to form you.” - Daniel Yankelovich, in New Rules: Searching for Self-fulfillment in a World Turned Upside Down.

What is the self? Is it something shaped and shared by our surroundings, as Dr. Yankelovich believes, or something private, autonomous, internal? Since everyone, no matter how he chooses to define the self, is interested in self-fulfillment, it is of paramount importance to know what the self is. Generally our concepts of the self are vague and speculative; so we often feel unfulfilled, even after attaining our goals. At a time when we are finding material goals more and more difficult to attain and when we are at a loss to find deep self-satisfaction, the Transcendental Technology {literature's} unique statements can provide us with invaluable information about the self and self- fulfillment.

TRANSCENDENTAL TECHNOLOGY

First we establish a STABILIZING AXIOM:

KRISHNA!

KRISHNA is the SOURCE of all things seen and unseen, moving and non-moving.

He is EVERYTHING AND NOTHING. EVEN 'NOTHING(ness) IS CONTAINED IN KRISHNA.

KRISHNA IS ALL FORCE AND ALL FORM. There is 'nothing' outside of KRISHNA, not even 'nothingness'.

KRISHNA is the SOURCE OF ALL GODS and therefore can be worshiped as god though KRISHNA demands no worship or sacrifice.

"I AM THE ONE THAT BECAME THE MANY."

"I AM THE SOURCE, THE FORCE, AND THE FORM, WHAT IS LEFT OF ME?"

"I WAS NOT BORN AND I CANNOT DIE, I AM SPIRIT, I AM ETERNAL ENERGY."

"I AM YOU!"

In the upper levels of The Transcendental Technology, Krishna {The SOURCE of all gods and all things} describes the self as a permanent individual, an eternal conscious entity who interrelates with other selves. MetaPsychics gives us exact information of the self as an imperishable, conscious particle, a spiritual soul (the PSI BEING), who gives consciousness to the otherwise dead body.

People often deny the existence of the SOUL or PSI BEING simply because the concept of the spiritual soul USED to be rejected by modern science. Since with empirical methods one cannot detect or measure the spiritual soul, many people conclude—dogmatically—that no soul exists and that whoever believes in such a thing is only imagining a "ghost in the machine." But from the perspective of MetaPsychics, to think of life in mechanistic terms ONLY, as mere chemical combinations and electrical impulses, is at best misguided, and at worst only limited knowledge.

Many people who scoff at religious explanations for the self which are outdated or in error, embrace the theories of science as their new religion.

Yet after hundreds of years of scientific philosophizing and experimentation, there is now an empirical explanation for the SOUL, which METAPSYCHICS explains to be the CONSCIOUSNESS of the Self and the Universe.

You have THE SPIRIT or SUPREME SOUL {without}. The SUPERSOUL {within}. You as a SOUL or the PSI BEING.

Your INTELLECT which is developed and the reason why you are here.

The MIND which is DUAL being both FORCE and FORM or a KINETIC and a STATIC.

And after that we have the BODY/ENVIRONMENT which includes your immediate environment, the World {Society}, The Earth {Nature and all that is in}, The Solar System. This is important because we have a Sun at the center of our universe which is a closed system, even as 'Earth' is a closed system, and necessarily so. And after the Solar System with its ONE SUN we have the infinite Universe.

Even the simple fact of individual conscious perception—everyone's awareness that he is alive—remains totally UNKNOWN to most people. Although the common man is in awe of advanced research in computer science ("artificial intelligence") and other technologies, no scientist has been able to duplicate anything like a conscious living being. Yet, we duplicate every physical thing and give some LIFE and others NO ENERGY at all. Science made the grand mistake of thinking CONSCIOUSNESS is non-material or non=physical which is not true. CONSCIOUSNESS is in communication with the BODY and NATURE, and EARTH, and SOLAR SYSTEM through the MIND, the SPIRIT or SOUL being on the top end and matter or the PHYSICAL BODY and UNIVERSE being on the other end of the QUANTUM UNIFIED FIELD or SPECTRUM. This makes the MIND both PSYCHIC {mass} and PHYSICAL {matter}. What makes the PSI BEING superior to the SPIRITUAL BEING {SP} and the PSYCHIC ENTITY {PE} and the GENERIC ENTITY {GE} is the fact he or she KNOWS and UNDERSTANDS and USES the differences between SPIRIT:SOURCE, SOUL. MIND, and BODY/ENVIRONMENT. This is the same as KNOWING RIGHT FROM WRONG, not just right and wrong which are only opinions in the physical and psychic worlds.

The reason mechanistic science has failed to explain or create consciousness is easy to grasp. As METAPSYCHICS explains, the PSI BEING, the source of consciousness, lies entirely beyond the body and mind, so methods of perception that depend on the sensory apparatus of the body and mind can never detect the PSI BEING.

Still, we can readily see the difference between the PSI BEING and the body by reflecting a little on our common everyday discourse. We think of the body as "ours," and we say "my hand" or "my foot," even "my mind." Since the "I," the self, is the owner of the body, it must be different from the body. There is the I AM and the 'I am'. One is transcendental consciousness, the other one is not.

METAPSYCHICS: empirical science of mind describes that above the body is the mind, above the mind is the intelligence, and above the intelligence is the spiritual soul. It is because of a case of mistaken identity, false ego, that the deathless spiritual soul takes up residence in the perishable material body. The self's identification with the body is like a person's taking his body in a dream to be real. And a society that accepts the theories of mechanistic science as the absolute truth reinforces this misidentification. Religion makes you think 'you are a MIND with a soul', when in reality 'you are an ETERNAL SOUL with an INFINITE MIND and FINITE BODY/ENVIRONMENT.' This is called in METAPSYCHICS:

"SPIRIT OVER MIND"

OR

“SOUL CONTROL!”

Whereas most of the other world is still working under the universal logic system: “MIND OVER MATTER” which is really the METAPHYSICS FIELD of KNOWLEDGE.

Spiritual and Transcendental knowledge confirms the sociologists’ claim that the beliefs of a society greatly influence the self. BELIEFS are opinions, FACTS belong to no one personally. From birth, parents assure a child that he or she is a boy or a girl, a member of a certain family, a certain society, and so on. Except in a rare case in which a family or society imparts spiritual or transcendental knowledge to the conditioned soul, one grows up with concocted, socialized conceptions of the self. This becomes the FALSE EGO instead of you being your true self THE TRUE EGO or PSI BEING. Therefore one is bound to meet frustration in one's search for self-fulfillment. Since one is actually eternal, one cannot be satisfied with temporary material goals, things finite {physical} and infinite {mind}. The MIND recreates and duplicates the physical world out of MASS or MENTAL or PSYCHIC ENERGY it is not REAL as in PHYSICAL MATTER but is a created THOUGHT-FORM or MENTAL PICTURE. The PSI BEING can give MEANING, MOTION, and MASS to anything he so desires and wants to create. CREATING is BELIEVING. What you BELIEVE you see and say is real even if it is NOT REAL to any other MIND.

The self can truly be satisfied only by gaining enlightenment concerning his relationship with the Supreme Lord Krishna. Krishna is NOT god but the SOURCE of all gods. Krishna, therefore, being the SOURCE of all gods is worshiped as god though Krishna demands no sacrifice or worship.

In that joyous state, one is situated in boundless transcendental happiness and enjoys himself through transcendental senses. Established thus, one never departs from the truth, and upon gaining this he thinks there is no greater gain. Being situated in such a position, one is never shaken, even in the midst of the greatest difficulty. This indeed is actual freedom from all miseries arising from material contact.

And what about social responsibility? If the soul is spiritual, different from the material body, doesn't that mean that a self-realized soul is antisocial, uninterested in helping others? No. Rather, when a human being comes to understand his real identity as the PSI BEING, an eternal spiritual soul, a servant of God, then for the first time he realizes his loving connection with all living beings. Such a self-realized person becomes automatically nonviolent, even toward animals. And being self-satisfied and therefore not overly dependent on material things, he does not conflict with others in vicious competition. Moreover, his universal vision, in which he sees all living entities as spiritual souls or sons of God, enables him to take a nonsectarian view and give up envious distinctions of race, sex, religion, and nationality. We all are of the same one Eternal Energy {SPIRIT} but our minds make us all different even when we are all similiar.

Paradoxically, one who becomes spiritually self-realized ceases to be selfish. The materialist, on the other hand, is always selfish. One who regards the self as isolated and private will selfishly try to experience as much sense pleasure as possible and minimize his concern for others. Or if he chooses to see the self in terms of shared meanings with society, he usually pursues the selfish interests of a particular social class or nation over all others. Only he who sees all selves on the spiritual basis can act in a way that will actually benefit others in their self-fulfillment.

MetaPsychics: science of the soul teaches that the real purpose of human life is to transcend death by liberating the PSI BEING from his bondage to material life. The soul who does not understand the self's relationship to Lord Krishna, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, has to transmigrate and return again to the material life of miseries: repeated birth, old age, disease, and death. Self-fulfillment conceived only in terms of one's body, family, occupation, or nation is ignorance.

"Real self-fulfillment never ends, even with death."

Since people are becoming increasingly concerned about self-fulfillment in an age full of uncertainties and great dangers.

I would suggest that they not overlook this treasure of information about the eternal self and its fulfillment that has been presented by the RASTAFARIAN AMERICAN SOCIETY-As It Is.

AFRICAN

100 to a 1000 Africans appeared on earth who were Homo Sapiens.
By the time they began to move out and explore and expand, only about a few 100 were left as a Nation.

This was no Adam and Eve fable, told to young kids at the table. What I tell you is true for what happened to you!

And out they went with their big outreach,
Four different kinds of Africans from head to toe.Four different races were going to show.
Some went North and some went East, Some went South and Some went West! Regardless! All over the globe they went!

And then there was the black man, the brown man, the tan man, and the white man too! So you just remember mon, they all came from you!
